

How to trace a lost pension

There is an estimated £400m in unclaimed pension savings in the UK.

If you think you have a pension from a previous employment but have lost contact with the pension scheme, you can search for contact details using the following service:

www.gov.uk/find-pension-contact-details